

AFL-CIO Law Student Union Summer

Application Form & Requirements

To apply, submit via e-mail to lsus@aflcio.org:

- (1) this application
- (2) a cover letter (see below for requirements)
- (3) resume
- (4) writing sample
- (5) law school transcript (may be unofficial)
- (6) three references (including at least one law school reference)

[include name, title, current address, phone number and e-mail address for each reference]

Please submit all documents in PDF form

Name:

Address:

Phone:

E-Mail:

You must submit a cover letter which addresses the following:

- Why you are interested in Law Student Union Summer; what experiences and interests led you to apply;
- Your prior work & experience with union organizing and/or with community, political, or other social justice organizations or programs;
- What you hope to achieve by your participation in LSUS.
- Please address your cover letter to:
 - Matt Ginsburg
Associate General Counsel
AFL-CIO
815 Sixteenth Street, NW
Washington, DC 20006

Please include in your cover letter:

- Your acknowledgement that you cannot be considered for

LSUS if you have limitations on where you can be placed or if you are not available to participate for the entire 10-week program (May 29 – August 3, 2018). [Placements are nationwide, NOT in Washington, D.C., and will be determined after the hiring process has been completed];

- Your fluency, if any, in a language other than English;
- Your union affiliation and that of close family members, if any (include union and location, if known).

DEADLINE: For best consideration, your application materials MUST be received by:
2Ls: December 18, 2017  1Ls: January 15, 2018

Online: <http://www.aflcio.org/about/programs/Law-Student-Union-Summer>

Email: lsus@aflcio.org

AFL-CIO Law Student Union Summer, 815 16th Street, NW, Washington, D.C. 20006

Phone: (202) 637-5385