

CAMPAIGN RESEARCH AND POLICY SPECIALIST- FEDERAL ADVOCACY
WASHINGTON, DC [HEADQUARTERS]

Are you passionate about economic fairness and social justice? Do you want to improve the lives of working people and strengthen the labor movement? If you answered, “Yes!,” then the AFL-CIO may be the right place for you. We are the largest federation of labor unions in the United States, and our team of dynamic professionals is dedicated to growing worker power and ensuring every working person has a voice on the job. When you work at the AFL-CIO, you’re more than just an individual employee—you’re helping to lead a movement with a proud history and a bright future ahead.

The AFL-CIO Advocacy Hub unifies the labor movement around a pro-worker policy agenda, developing, coordinating, and advancing that agenda to the halls of power.

The Campaign Policy Specialist, Federal is responsible for, in close coordination with Advocacy Hub and campaign colleagues, researching and drafting policy analysis and advocacy materials on federal policy issues on behalf of a broader national campaign. Research and writing tasks may include policy memos, proposals, model legislation, talking points, fact sheets, and reports. This specialist will meet regularly with colleagues to brainstorm and help formulate strategy. This position will focus on federal impacts and policy needs.

Temporary position not to exceed twelve (12) months.

DESCRIPTION OF DUTIES:

- Conduct policy analysis and research and support the development of AFL-CIO’s campaign policy positions on a variety of issues, predominantly federal and national issues.
- Create analysis, testimony, AFL-CIO policy statements, correspondence, and comments on proposed regulations and implementation guidance; develop model legislation and materials explaining AFL-CIO public policy positions for the Federation, affiliates, and state and local bodies.
- Integrate this policy work into the federal campaign; support other AFL-CIO departments and/or senior leadership on emerging policy issues as needed and assigned for this campaign;
- Create written reports, materials, factsheets, testimony, and participate in interdepartmental/campaign working groups and strategy on related issues;
- Develops plans, assembles resources and coordinates research components of campaign.
- Effectively communicates AFL-CIO campaign goals to elected leadership of national affiliate staff.
- Work with different levels of the AFL-CIO structure to help coordinate Federation resources supporting campaign.
- Plays a central role in campaign planning.
- Perform other duties as assigned.

QUALIFICATIONS AND SKILLS:

- Minimum of 7 years relevant work experience and demonstrated success in relevant areas;
- Bachelor's degree in a related field or equivalent experience.
- Demonstrated experience in the labor movement with a union or community organization with a minimum of two years of union/federation, community, women's agenda, or political experience;
- Excellent attention to detail and accuracy.
- Excellent communication and writing skills, including the ability to write policy documents, testimony, and reports, suggest changes to legislation, and successful ability to speak to large and diverse groups of people, including union members, academics, young workers, union leaders, elected officials, and peers;
- Demonstrated ability to manage and prioritize multiple tasks;
- Commitment to improving equity for under-represented groups in the labor movement.
- Knowledge and experience with both national and local structures of the labor movement;
- Effective organizational and time management skills and ability to handle multiple high-priority projects;
- Ability to work well in a collaborative environment.
- Ability to work independently within the context of a plan.
- Ability to create written work plans;
- Ability to travel in the performance of the duties of the job
- Ability to work long hours or weekends as required.

Resume and cover letter required.

Salary: $106,792.59

Apply here: <https://aflcio.exacthire.com/>

Equal Opportunity Employer